Paterson, N.J. 22nd 1959

Washington DC.

Dear Sir

This is to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated July 20th 1959, with enclosed money order for amount of $50.00 thank you.

I am sorry that I missed this years program, but as I mentioned to you during our last telephone conversation, it was impossible for me to ask new employer for a leave of absent, in a such short period of my employment with him. I hope that by next program period things will be better so as I may attend it.

Hopping to hear from you.

Sincerely yours

P.S. Inclosing [illegible]

wishing to all of you best of luck and happy sucess in achiving mutual idea.
